TALES of the FORGOTTEN NORTH

SATURDAY 29TH JUNE – THURSDAY 11TH JULY

A Bit Crack Storytellers have embarked on an epic journey through Northumberland and we would like to invite you to join us for an evening of storytelling.

Fire, fury and forgiveness
 St Mary's C of E Middle School,
 Belford Northumberland

7PM SATURDAY 29TH JUNE
 Tickets £4/6

An evening of stories both fact and fiction.

Storytellers Pat Renton and Pascale Konyn will tell mystical and magical stories from the North and a new and wonderous tale about the people who lived at Green Shiel, an Anglo Saxon farmstead on Holy Island. A story of fear, hope and kindness.

Supported by Jessica Turner, an archaeologist who will take us back to the 9th century and bring to life what it was like to be living in this farmstead so long ago.

Joining us for the evening will be the pupils from the school who will tell the stories they have created whilst working on the project.

There will be further performances, bicycle rides and story walks throughout the fortnight, with tales from Yeavinger Bell, Lordenshaws, Elsdon's Motte and Bailey and Thirlwall Castle. See website for more details.
