A Bit Crack Storytellers have embarked on an epic journey through Northumberland and we would like to invite you to join us for an evening of storytelling.

Thirlwall Castle tall and still, hides a secret on its hill.

Come and join us at your leisure, to hear a story of it's treasure.

Hear fact and fiction side by side, but what is true – you must decide!

An evening for all the family with history and archaeology presented by Paul Frodsham – one of the archaeologists responsible for the restoration of Thirlwall Castle – and Storyteller Chris Bostock who has been dreaming up a story with the help of local experts in Year 3 and Year 4 from Greenhead First School.

Join us for an evening of Northumberland magic real and imagined. Thirlwall Castle at last the story can be told – alongside more Northumberland Tales with Storytellers Chris Bostock and Pat Renton.

There will be further performances, bicycle rides and story walks throughout the fortnight, with tales from Yeavinger Bell, Lordenshaws, Elsdon's Motte and Bailey and Thirlwall Castle. See website for more details.
